18 September 1963MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of PersonnelSUBJECT: Selection for Career Employee Status - [redacted]
National Photographic Interpretation Center

50X1

REFERENCE: [redacted]

50X1

1. In keeping with the provisions of referenced Headquarters Regulation, it is requested that [redacted], currently employed by this activity in a Reserve Employee status, be converted to Career Employee status.

50X1

2. [redacted] has been assigned for approximately fifteen months as an Intelligence Officer (General) at the GS-14 level to the Plans Branch, Plans and Development Staff of the National Photographic Interpretation Center. His performance has been characterized by exceptional proficiency and resulted in the recommendation by his Staff Chief to the Photographic Intelligence Career Service Board for his selection to Career Employee status. The IP Career Service Board recommended and received my approval for such a selection.

50X1

3. Because of [redacted] long and superior service to the Agency prior to his acquisition by NPIC; his earlier selection for membership in the Career Staff; his exceptional performance with NPIC; and his dedication to and demonstrated capability for continued service to CIA, I am requesting that you effect his early conversion to the status of Career Employee.
